We can't help feeling somewhat sorry for Hancock. Butler is for him.

Four steamers brought to New York yesterday $200,000 of foreign gold.

Chicago likes to blow, and yet it makes war on the tug whistles. Hardly consistent.

The Democrats sigh for change, but if they once got their hands in Uncle Sam's till, they wouldn't be satisfied with change, but would greedily gobble bills and bullion.

The Chicago and Northwestern company expect to have their new branch from Milwaukee completed by the first of June next. The grading is to be done before snow flies.

Among the latest crop reports are gleamed the facts that the Russian harvest is worse than since the famine of 1857, and that the Egyptian cotton crop will be much less than last year.

If Wade Hampton keeps on with his denials he will soon swear by the Gods that he didn't deliver any speech at all. Unfortunately for him a large number of Democratic delegates are prepared affirming that he did make a speech, or try to, and that he did affirm in fact what the press has reported him as saying.

It has been so often charged and so often denied, that the Democratic party since its acquisition of power at Washington, has been ousting Union soldiers from office, and appointing Rebels to their places, that the records have been appealed to as an umpire. The rolls show the names of seventy-six Union soldiers discharged from the United States Capitol by the Democratic officers of the House and Senate since the capture of the Capitol by the Democrats, and also show the names of eighty-eight Rebel soldiers who have been employed instead. That there may be no chance for mistake or misstatement, a list of these names has been published, and shows for itself that the promise held out by Senator Wallace, that Democrats would not disturb Union soldiers is very gay. The list of names must be very interesting reading matter to General Hancock, and to those who support him on the ground of his being a loyal Union soldier. If he can endorse this treatment of his old comrades in arms, as he seemingly does by accepting the position of leader of this party, he surely cannot ask other old soldiers to endorse him.

JULIAN'S LEAP.

George W. Julian in his great speech at Indianapolis last Tuesday evening indulged in some very amusing, if not graceful, mental gymnastics. The effect of the evening was his backward somersault, over what seemed to him a great elephant—the record of the Democratic party. He wisely concluded that to try to jump through this elephant and come out alive was impossible. To walk around it would make him the butt of ridicule, and so he tried the leap. With one bound he declared—"it is not the Democratic party of 1860, but the Democratic party of 1880, inevitably moulded and instated by great historical events, and we are to judge it in the light of to-day." He cleared the elephant, but the elephant is there all the same, and will remain there. It is easy to tell the people that this is a new Democratic party, but it is not so easy to make them believe it. The damning spots will not out at the bidding, and the record will not only stand by the Democratic party, but the Democratic party must stand by its record.

Having made his leap over a score of years he presents this new babe of a party, born in 1880, instead of 1860, and asks that it "be judged by the light of to-day," and that by-gones be wiped from the slate. But what are we to judge it by, without any past record to look upon? Its platform, perhaps, but Julian in the very opening of his great speech says, "the platforms of the two parties give us very little help in answering the question, what are the issues of the pending canvass?" He asks us to measure the new babe without a tape, to weigh it without a steelyard, and to intrust the nation's wealth and health to the babe of 1860, which has no record for the past but a penitent wile, and no promise for the future but a pucker for papa. This "baby act" may amuse, but it cannot deceive.

The only excuse which Julian can offer for thus ignoring the record of the Democratic party, is that both parties have changed and are not what they were, and yet he makes the burden of his speech an effort to show that the Republican party has been more or less corrupt for at least twelve years past. The past should be wiped out when the Democratic party is judged. The past should be twisted and misstated but not forgotten, when the Republican party is weighed. Such is Julian's logic.

Fortunately the Republican party is not afraid of its past, present, or future record, and it is encouraging to know that the people will unite in the idea of next November, in informing Mr. Julian and his friends, that they have not lost sight of the records of either party, and that his wonderful leap from 1860 to 1880 has not caused them to overlook the elephant standing in the way of Democratic success.

publician convention, on account of its wonderful harmony of working and the peculiar wisdom and fitness of the result. Although for some of the offices there were a number of eager aspirants, and although a nomination by this convention virtually means an election by the people, yet the interest and importance attached to the result of each ballot, did not in any way mar the perfect harmony, lessen the good feeling, or weaken the unanimous outburst of enthusiasm as each choice was finally made. From the reading of the call to the final adjournment, the proceedings were conducted in a business-like, orderly manner, and yet by no means lifeless, as the frequent applause indicated, and when the final result became known, those who had hopes disappointed, submitted to the inevitable with good grace, gladly joined in congratulating the successful ones, and laying aside all personal preferences or opinions, all seemed to unite heartily in pledging their earnest support to the ticket thus framed. Although harmony and enthusiasm seem natural parts of true Republican conventions, yet in yesterday's they were shown to such an unusual degree as to presage an even more glorious victory this fall than has yet gone upon the record of the Republican party in Rock county.

Around the Shrievally there clustered much interest, and a number of excellent men were named as fit successors to Sheriff Comstock, who has filled the office most ably and acceptably for the single term allowed by law. The final choice of H. L. Skaylon, of Newark, was easily made, and none doubt its wisdom. He is one who as a citizen, as well as in his more public duties as a member of the County Board of Supervisors, has shown himself a true man, in all that that most honored term implies. Among the people of his own nationality, the Norwegians, he is an acknowledged leader, and he has won no less respect from his other fellow citizens. That he will ably and faithfully fill the office there is no doubt whatever.

For Register of Deeds there was a speedy and unanimous choosing of C. L. Valentine, who has for six years past filled that office, and whose record is his own best praise.

The renomination of Willis Miles for County Treasurer is equally wise. By the manner in which he has filled that office for four years past he has doubly proved, what all knew before, that he is honest and capable, and in all respects a fit man to entrust with such important duties.

Sylvester Morgan was heartily renominated for County Clerk, and the endorsement thus given him, and this tangible approval of the manner in which he has conducted that office for four years past, is but a re-echo of a sentiment felt throughout the whole county. It is almost needless to say that he is a careful, conscientious man, who thoroughly understands every detail of the required work, and performs it most faithfully.

District Attorney Sale was unanimously renominated by acclamation, not merely an empty compliment, but a fitting choice, and a worthy reward for the energy and ability manifested during the six years in which he has served in that position. Few counties have been so highly favored as Rock in securing as its District Attorney such a hard working able attorney.

It would seem next to impossible to secure a man as Clerk of the Circuit Court who could fill that position as well as A. W. Baldwin does, and has for twelve years past. He is not only thoroughly conversant with every part of the office work, but does not lessen in his attention to business, his courtesy of manner, and his accuracy of work.

For County Surveyor, R. K. Lee was nominated. He has for a long time been in the office under Edward Rager, and during that gentleman's absence from the city, the responsibilities of the office have fallen upon him. Mr. Rager's reputation as a civil engineer and a surveyor is such, that when it is said that to Mr. Lee has been entrusted the duties of the office, it is a sufficient guarantee of his capability to fill the position to the satisfaction of all.

Dr. Allen, of Milton, was nominated for Coroner. The office is mainly a nominal one, but the addition of that gentleman's name is no weakening of the ticket, and in case his services were needed, he is a man who will not be found wanting.

The ticket is one of which all Republicans may feel proud, and which all will enthusiastically support. There is not a name upon it, which is tarnished with even the breath of scandal. They are men who have been tested, men who have had experience, men who have shown their ability, and trustworthiness, and whose past record is the sure promise of the continuance of a faithful and honest administration of the affairs of Rock county.

The convention did wisely and justly in reappointing the present County committee for another term of two years. They are a body of good organizers, faithful workers, and in their hands the interests of the Republican party of this county will continue to be well cared for.

IT'S BOSS NOW.

"Are you the boss of the house?" Yes replied the landlord, I'm boss now, for my wife died two weeks ago, what was the matter with her? Oh Dyspepsia and Bilious Fever, she ought to have taken Spring Blossom and then she'd be boss still.

MURDER.

Jacob Blackwell, Shot Dead in the Town of Watworth, Watworth County.

ELKHORN, Aug. 25.—Jacob Blackwell, a farmer, 40 years of age, living two miles from Douglass Corner, in the town of Watworth, this county, was murdered last night, under the following circumstances: About 8 o'clock Blackwell, hearing his dog bark, opened the door, and going toward the road but a few steps, received a shot from a heavily-loaded gun, two rifle balls entering his breast and another his shoulder. From the effects of these wounds he died in a few minutes. Blackwell was married about five weeks ago to an attractive German girl, who stood in the doorway at the time of the shooting, and revenge on the part of a repulsed suitor is alleged as the cause of the tragedy. A warrant was issued to day for the arrest of one George Viellie, aged about 40, with a withered right hand, he being suspected as the author of the deed, and known as having paid marked attention to the wife of the deceased before her marriage. This is the first murder that has occurred in this county for many years, and great excitement exists in the vicinity where it took place.

KEENE ON GOULD.

Keene Gives the Public an Inside View of the Great Wheeler How Gould Cries When He Loses Money And He Lives on Malaria.

New York Sun, Aug. 25.

A leading operator, who is supposed to have suffered as badly at the hands of Mr. Gould as he has done in a speculation in wheat, was talking over the subject a few days ago in a semi-social vein.

"Gould has been doing all in his power," he said, "to cripple me, but without any success. Why, the directors of two of the largest banks remarked to me the other day that no bank could have availed a run upon it had one-half of the false stories been circulated about it which have been current about my enormous losses. According to this fable I lost some four millions in wheat, while in fact I lost only a million and a quarter, half of which I recovered in one stroke in a speculation in land, and more than the other half in stocks. Did it ever occur to you why Gould seeks the malaria banks of the Hudson? No, Well, he can't stand the pure bracing air of the seashore; it is too healthy for his constitution. He lives on malaria and other people's misfortunes. If the Government were to put him in a Florida marsh, he would absorb every taint of malaria in it, so that even an alligator would be left. His trickery is notorious; yet by means of false reports he manages to saddle his wildcats upon the public. Look at the Union Pacific. Its stock has been watered to the extent of $14,000,000, and its bonded indebtedness increased by $33,000,000 within the last year. The manner in which this was done was admirable and thoroughly Gould-like. It was not a wonderful stroke as his feat of putting into his and his partner's pockets $25,000,000 of the money belonging to the Erie Treasury. That was somewhat dangerous to be repeated. All New York knows that it was touch-and-go at that time whether the State should not have the honor of supporting him for the remainder of his days. But money was so lavishly spent, and the pressing needs of the bankrupt corporation were so great that, although the books were recovered and the proof of his guilt complete, yet he was not prosecuted, but spared to give fresh proof of his financial ability. The author of 'Piccadilly' says the first thing a speculator in Wall street must do is to buy a Judge and run him. This refers to the time when Gould and Tweed—brothers by a common instinct—ruled the roost. But nowadays there are no Judges for sale, and Gould is consequently hampered."

Returning to the watering of the Union Pacific, the narrator explained that "Mr. Gould needed more assistance on this occasion. He took the Boston Trustees—all honorable men—into his confidence. Russell Sage and Sydney Dillon were also brought in. Several satellites, who are always ready to be used when they see profit in it, were initiated. Before this Gould had purchased the control of the Kansas Pacific at about 25 cents on the dollar. He had found great difficulty in carrying it. The road was in the hands of a Receiver. The interest on the bonded debt had not been paid. The bonds and shares were selling at low prices and were in bad odor. Gould had applied to his friends to make a market, and to help him unload. He had been refused, and he summoned his associates around him. He explained his schemes, and a majority of the Union Trustees agreed. A pool was formed, and most of the remaining Kansas Pacific stock was bought at about 40. This was converted into Union Pacific stock, which was then selling at 90, and Gould & Co., had a good straddle on the market by selling Union Pacific short at 90 and buying Kansas Pacific at 40.

"That is the way in which Mr. Gould makes money and fools the public. No one can ever forget his conduct on Black Friday. That is how a matter of history. But it is not so well known that this man is unable to lose with equanimity; that his brokers have to pull him out of his chair; he cries like a child at the loss of his ill-gotten gains. Why, he came to me, ready to fall on his knees, and pitifully sought me to help him to cover his shorts in St. Louis, St. Paul, and Northwestern. I did so, and now this man tries to ruin my credit by spreading injurious rumors, which, as I said, no bank could withstand. But I don't mind it much. I can take care of myself."

DROWNED.

MANITOWOC, Aug. 25.—Captain Iverson, of the schooner Arrow, of Milwaukee, fell overboard and was drowned in the bay here yesterday afternoon. Just how the accident occurred cannot be ascertained, for the crew—a mate and one seaman—tell contradictory stories. At first a suspicion of foul play was aroused, but the opinion now is that it was the result of too much whisky.

THE KNIGHTS.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 25.—In the drill of divisions of Knights of Pythias at the Fair-Grounds to-day, for the merchants' prize, $500, the Lafayette Division, Lafayette, Ind., was the victor. The Indianapolis and Evansville, Ind., Divisions and Dayton and Springfield, O., Divisions were the competitors of the Lafayette Division.

DEAF-MUTES.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 25.—The deaf-mutes of America are holding here to-day their first convention. Their is a fair attendance of leading deaf mutes from all parts of the United States and Canada. Proceedings are all carried on by signs.

COLORED EDITORS.

LOUISVILLE, Aug. 25.—The first meeting of the colored editors in the United States for the purpose of organizing a permanent Association, was held in Beck's Hall to-day, and was fairly attended.

A STRIKE.

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 25.—Between 200 and 300 men employed by the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad Company in the new Menominee Valley Machine shops, went out on a strike to-day.

OBITUARY.

LOUISVILLE, Aug. 25.—Dr. William C. Matthews, D. D., well known Presbyterian minister of this city, died last night at Lexington, Ky., where he was spending the summer.

NEW POWER.

Few people suffer so much nervous exhaustion as newspaper editors. The wear and tear of getting out a good paper tell terribly, and readers seldom know how much vital force a single item may have cost the one who wrote it. Editors have an incentive to drink in order to stimulate their exhausted faculties, but of late are using Warner's Safe

Nervine instead. This valuable preparation acts as a soothing power, quieting the nerves and producing sleep with all the refreshment that it brings.

DAY'S Kidney PAD

A DISCOVERY BY ACCIDENT.
and a Discovery which has been a great success, and so varied and advanced, that it can hardly be expected to find a place before knowing what all its value is. The most characteristic symptoms are actual wasting away of the whole body, pain in the kidneys, and a want of a natural feeling; of spirit and power of exertion; scanty and painful discharge of variously colored urine, inability to retain or expel the urine; marked enlargement of the kidneys, and the disease is of long duration, there is much exhaustion and general nervous prostration.

THE ONLY CURE.

We say positively that the cure of the kidney disease is the first year of contri-iction, that the DAY'S KIDNEY PAD is the first and only infallible cure for every form of Kidney Disease. It is the best remedy yet discovered for this disease, and we trust that its approbation and confidence of medical men and those who have used it, it has become a favorite and superseded all other treatments.

DISEASES OF THE KIDNEYS

the most prevalent, dangerous and fatal affections of the human system, and so varied and advanced, that it can hardly be expected to curative powers from many persons of high character, and the most responsible. Our book,

"How to Live and Stay Well," is the best record of this discovery and a large record of most remarkable cures sent us. Write for it.

DAY'S KIDNEY PAD is a discovery of which we are so well pleased, that we offer it to the public at a very moderate price, and with the hope that it will be received with the same interest and success as the DAY'S KIDNEY PAD.

CAUTION: We do not sell DAY'S KIDNEY PAD, but we sell DAY'S KIDNEY PAD to several dealers on our reputation, we do it due the affliction to warn you. As for DAY'S KIDNEY PAD, take no other, and you will not be deceived.

Coughs.

"Brown's Bronchial Triches" are used with advantage to alleviate COUGH, SORE THROAT, HOARSNESS and BRONCHIAL AFFECTIONS. For thirty years these "Triches" have been in use, with annually increasing favor. They are not new and untried, but, having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age.

The Tinctor.—"Brown's Bronchial Triches" act directly on the organs of the voice. They have an extraordinary effect in all disorders of the Throat and Larynx, restoring a healthy tone when relaxed, either from cold or over-exertion of the voice, and produce a clear and distinct enunciation. Speakers and Singers find the "Triches" useful.

A COUGH, COULD CATARACT OR SORE THROAT requires immediate attention, as neglect often-times results in some incurable Lung Disease. "Brown's Bronchial Triches" will almost invariably give relief. Imitations are offered for sale, many of which are injurious. The genuine "Brown's Bronchial Triches" are sold only in boxes.

BRIEFLISTS.

—Even the weather has "freaks."

—The church folk meet for prayer to-night.

—There will be fun alive at the Opera house, this evening.

—The wet weather has caused a postponement of St. Patrick's church picnic until next Tuesday.

—The Northwestern pay car passed over the new Atton road to-day bound for the Madison division.

—Moseley & Bro. have been given the contract for furnishing pocket knives to the State. Good enough.

—Richardson & Bro. are to-day sending a stock of shoes to Whitewater to supply a branch store there.

—The Lower City Band has been requested to send terms for attending the reunion of the 35th Illinois regiment at Harvard, September 4th.

—William Canary was this morning brought to trial in the police court for assaulting one of his boarders named Emery. Canary was found guilty and fined $10 and costs. Paid.

—The G. & N. W. Ry. Co. will sell excursion tickets to Beloit and return, via Atton, during the Fair, Aug. 31st, Sept. 1st, 2d, 3d, good to return until Sept. 4th. Fare for round trip seventy cents.

—The usual complimentaries have been received at this office from H. P. Kimball, Secretary of the Winnebago County Agricultural Society, which holds its Fair in Rockford, Sept. 14th to 17th inclusive.

—A new counterfeit national bank note has made its appearance and it is to be detected by the absence of the feet of the Goddess of Liberty. This is plainly an error, for how could there be a counterfeiter when they are invisible?

—The funeral services of the late M. W. Sheafe were held this morning at Trinity Episcopal church. Rev. T. W. MacLean and Rev. A. L. Royce officiating. There were a goodly number of the sympathizing friends in attendance, and the services were very impressive and tender.

—The dance given at Young America last evening, was declared by all who attended, a most enjoyable occasion. The make-up of the crowd was excellent, the music was good, and the supper provided by the ladies of St. Patrick's church, was pronounced one of the best ever served. Altogether it was a success, despite the rain.

—Henry Bodeke, the young man who was arrested some weeks ago for stealing money from his employer, Mr. Moran, has been released from jail on his own recognizance. His father, who was also arrested, was discharged upon examination, and the action now taken concerning the boy indicates that the matter will not be pushed any more.

—We have received from the enterprising Secretary of the Jefferson County Agricultural Society, D. W. Curtis, a cordial invitation to attend the fair at Jefferson, September 14, 15, 16 and 17, and hope to be able to put in an appearance. The Jefferson County fair is always a success, and offers liberal premiums and a general good time.

—World renowned, as unrivaled, is the As-ton House, New York.

—Why is a person getting Rheumatism like a man locking a door. Because he is turning a key (key) the best cure for Rheumatism or Neuralgia is Dr. Thomas Electroic Oil.

—"Brown's Bronchial Triches" are sold only in boxes.

PERSONAL.

—A private letter received from Appler yesterday, states that Dr. Huntley is still quite seriously ill.

—Mrs. McGalliard, of Lincoln, Ill., who has been visiting here for several weeks past, left, to-day, for her home.

—J. J. McGinty, who has been visiting his brother, Rev. Father McGinty for a few days past, started to-day for his home in Denver, Colorado.

—Miss Young, one of Boston's teachers, is in the city, visiting Mrs. G. E. Griswold. She was one of Mrs. Griswold's traveling companions in crossing the ocean.

—Frank Hoskins left, to-day, for Dexter Minn., where he will engage in the grain business for the Cargill brothers, who also formerly lived here. Frank is a first-class young man, and it is too bad for Janesville to lose him, but his many friends will wish him great success in the new work.
